

Validation Flower

Validation: "To confirm or strengthen what is relevant, true, or effective about a response, be it a thought, emotion, physical sensation, or action. Validation requires empathy... but validation also includes the communication that the person's response makes sense" (Hall, 2011).

